Defeats Standpatter

In the three-cornered contest for the Republican nomination for Governor, Governor J. J. Blaine, the La Follette candidate, registered an overwhelming victory over Attorney General W. J.
Morgan, the standpatter seed to be seen wrong for years back, and in fact the first explorer who went there, the myon A. C. McHenry, Oshkosh, whan on a platform advocating the return of beer and wine.

Blaine's victory also indicates that he succeeded in corralling almost the enture Republican wet vote of the state, although before the primary Blaine was vered between wet and dry, to suit the occasion and the district, his opponents asserted.

Incomplet returns indicate a sweeping victory for the entire La Follette state ticket, with the possible exception of State Treasurer. Returns

One was inspired by a "Renee" model-made of finely textured crepe de Chine. The hand-made flower yoke gives it a touch of French distinction; the unusual draping is fastened with twin buckles; and the sleeves proclaim their originality. The other, of crepe satin, relies on a full circular skirt-longer at the sides, of coursewith a profusion of self tucking for trimming.

Both come in black, brown and navy. Sizes 34 to 42.
